MEDIA ADVISORY

Nashville Flea Market Returns with Outside Only Market

NASHVILLE – After a 14-month hiatus due to the Covid-19 pandemic, The Nashville Flea Market will return to the Nashville Fairgrounds on May 22-23. Event times will be Saturday, 8am-6pm and Sunday 8am-4pm. The market will be scaled down from its original three day schooled to now only two days. Additionally, the market will return as an outdoor only event.

“The staff is excited to get back to hosting the flea market,” said Executive Director Laura Womack. “The vendors are family to us. It will be great to get to some semblance of normalcy.”

The Nashville Flea Market

The weekly market is a 52-year Nashville tradition. Vendors sale a wide range of items. Over 500,000 customers frequent the market. The Nashville Flea Market is open for shopping on the fourth weekend of every month. Every December, the Nashville Flea Market falls on the third weekend of the month due to the Christmas Holiday. Regular hours for the Flea Market Office are Monday-Friday 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

The Fairgrounds Nashville

In operation for over 110 years, The Fairgrounds Nashville is an ideal indoor/outdoor venue for meetings, conferences, trade shows, concerts and special events of all sizes. Home of the Nashville Speedway and Nashville Flea Market, the property maintains three buildings with more than 120,000 square feet of indoor space for meetings and events with abundant parking. The location is only one mile south of downtown with direct interstate access. To learn more about The Nashville Fairgrounds, visit us at www.thefairgrounds.com.
